

ABORIGINAL CULTURAL TOUR

Australia is a nation of Aboriginal cultures. Let the Desert Park allow you to experience the desert from an authentic Central Australian Aboriginal perspective.

Highlights

Australia is a nation of Aboriginal cultures. Let the Desert Park allow you to experience the desert from an authentic Central Australian Aboriginal perspective.

Example of Tour. What is it we humans need to survive? Be met by a Guide on arrival to begin your discovery. Be involved in interactive activities that share knowledge on belonging to and looking after the land, its plants and animals and each other.

Walk from Desert Rivers to Sand Country learning about how to find water in the desert and different tracks and tools used by desert Aboriginal people. In the Park's Nocturnal House learn about hunting and sign language before continuing the journey to the Nature Theatre to be enthralled by birds of prey and other predators of the desert.

Our Guides

The Desert Park encourages local Aboriginal people to present their own culture to visitors. All of the Park's guides are locals and half are Aboriginal people from the region.
